LABOUR INFORMATION SERVICE.

The Employment Exchange (No. 3, Lady Curzon Road, Civil Station, Bangalore) finds employment to the jobless. It does not create jobs but assists the employment seekers on the one hand and the employers on the other in meeting their requirements. Much of the success of this organisation, which renders free service, depends on the co-operation of the employers.

Sixteen thousand two hundred and seventy-six employment seekers were registered at the exchange from the commencement up to the end of April 1949, of whom 7,503 persons were submitted and 1,721 persons were placed. There are still 3,160 ex-service personnel and 8,904 others on the live register.

For the month of April, there were 1,145 employment seekers who were registered, of whom 25 were women, 1 ex-servicemen and 932 others.

One hundred and ninety-five vacancies were reported fro employers, of which 186 were from Government and 9 fro private parties.

The number of persons directed for employment was 1(ex-service personnel and 234 others. The total number placings during the month was 90, of which 19 represented e servicemen and 73 others.

The number of applications received under the Lan Colonization Scheme was 41.

Organised originally for the specific purpose of resettlir ex-service personnel and war workers in civil life, the Employment Exchange has now an extended scope and it can made to serve the national interest if only its potentialities the Man Power Bank are realised by all concerned. With t support of the employment-seekers, it can show a bett record of placements and thus help to solve the problem "UNEMPLOYMENT."
